Butler University
Indianapolis, Indiana

Looking Around Us . . .

We look around us and we see Butler's campus fully in view . . . we see the old sturdily facing the new . . . we see the narrowly scholastic giving way to the cultural. We see life in everything around us . . . color is everywhere. The campus is the surface, the superficial covering of Butler University. We see the lake, blue and thick, but turned to green for special occasions . . . we see the woods and the gardens whose character changes with the seasons . . . we see the malls long and untouched, framed by cars of all colors.

well-remembered*

Beyond the campus is the university, the people who keep Butler on the move . . . There is the faculty whose knowledge reflects light through the windows of Jordan Hall and the students who depend upon the light and are guided by it . . . There is the administration who make the windows possible . . . the buildings, the landscape, the faces . . . We see a university well-established within our gaze . . . the grooved paths which point to Jordan Hall from each direction. . . . Jordan Hall, the academic cornerstone . . . the Memorial Carillon Tower with its foundation of stone and steadfastness . . . the Pharmacy building guarding our health and physical well-being. . . . Sweeney Chapel summons us religiously . . . and the Observatory places us not only within a university and community but within a larger universe.

We see each other in our broad visual sweep . . . we have a purpose . . . to grow with Butler . . . we must grow quickly because Butler has become an ever-expanding institution under President M. O. Ross . . . the John McGurk family will its estate . . . Butler is the scene of upturned ground . . . plans are converted to foundations and structures . . . Jordan College of Music building is the first to tower above ground . . . Mrs. G. H. A. Clowes dedicates a memorial to her husband in a cornerstone laying ceremony . . . Eli Lilly Endowment, Inc. offers $250,000 if Butler matches it with $500,000 . . . trucks deliver arches designed by Minoru Yamasaki.

° Conference games

The 1961 Bulldogs finished a perfect season. In their perfection they copped their fourth straight conference championship while going to their second undefeated, untied football season in the last three years. The team had tremendous depth, being able to field a second, and sometimes a third team, just as powerful as the first. The success can be attributed to the 17 seniors, many of whom have played together since their freshman year, providing the leadership needed for this outstanding team.

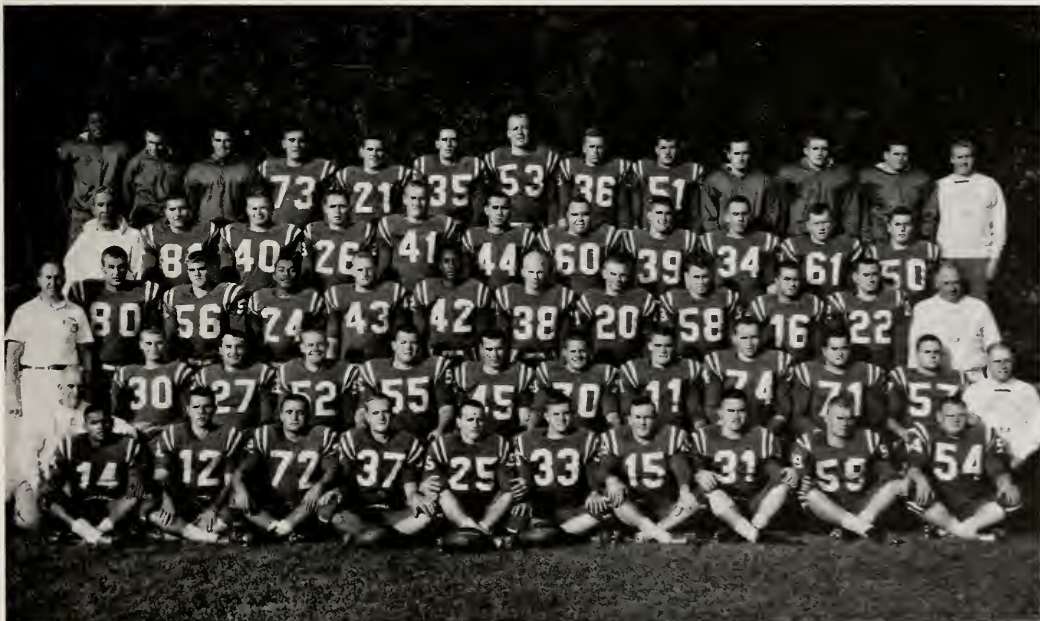

The Bulldogs broke many records. An outstanding record was the school winning string, which was extended to 15 games. At the end of the season they were rated ninth by UPI and tenth by AP for small college teams in the nation. Even though they were rated so high, Butler failed to receive a post-season bowl bid which many felt they rightly deserved. In conference play this year Butler led the league in passing and total offense, and was second in rushing and defense.

Bulldogs Break Records For A Perfect Season

Jack Krebs (38) gains another ten yards as Ken Freeman (41) blocks for him.

Butler 34 - - Bradley 23

The Bulldogs started the season off right with an exciting game that saw several spectacular runs and the air filled with passes. Butler held Bradley's ground attack to only ten yards, but the Brave's picked up 280 yards in the air. Bradley's quarterback had a good passing percentage of 20 of 38 passes for a 52 per cent average.

Butler's offense was also outstanding, picking up 192 yards in the air with Phil Long throwing 15 of 20 passes for a 75 per cent average. The line and backfield looked exceptionally well, with fullback Gary Green crossing the goal line three times. The other two touchdowns were made by halfback John Brown and end Jack Krebs on passes by Long. Danny Gallagher added four PAT's out of five attempts.

Jack Krebs (38) and Gary Green (45) bring down a Ball State opponent as Mickey Seal (11) and Lee Grimm (61) come in to help.

Mickey Seal (11) moves in to break up a Bradley pass play as Jack Krebs (38) looks on.

Butler 48 - - Ball State 6

Butler romped to their second victory of the season by a one-sided score of 48 to 6. An oddity of the game was shown in the statistics. Ball State had more yards rushing, more yards passing, picked up more first downs, and had a better punting average.

But the Butler team played around with the Cardinal team or the score might have been much worse. Half-time score was 27 to 0, and after the rest period not much was to be seen of the first two units.

Butler 34 - - Wabash 7

The Bulldogs acquired their third victory and their first on the road this season by defeating the Little Giants 34 to 7. Both teams entered the game with clean records, and the first quarter looked as if it was to be a close game. But Butler broke the game open in the second quarter and were never pressed during the rest of the game. One of the more exciting scores came in the fourth quarter, when halfback Mickey Seal intercepted a pass and raced 85 yards for the final TD.

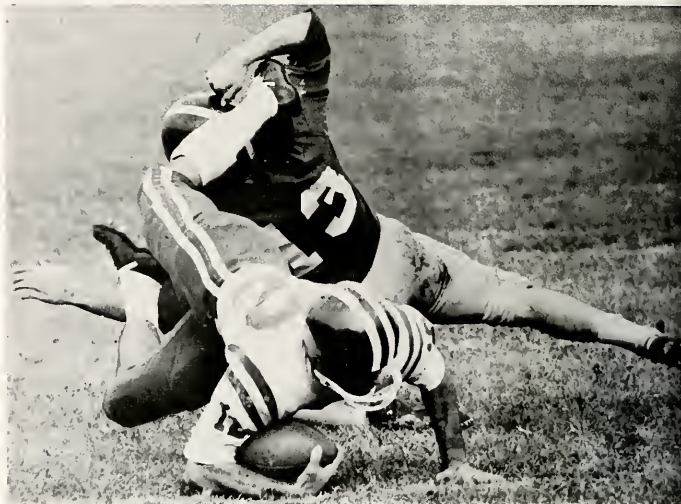

John Brown downs a Wabash runner as John Jackson (70) and Hans Sheridan (60) move in to assist.

Butler 12 - - DePauw 6

The DePauw Tigers were more than fired up for their Homecoming game when they entertained the Bulldogs. DePauw won the first half, but Butler came through with two touchdowns in the second half to win the game.

The turning point in the game came at the beginning of the third quarter when halfback Mickey Seal returned the kickoff 57 yards from the five. Halfback Larry Shook ended the drive when he went around right end for the tying score. Danny Gallagher missed the extra point. The winning touchdown was set up on a fourth down and nine yard situation. Long elected to pass. The pass was complete and covered 13 yards giving Butler a first down. A few plays later the fired up Bulldogs put Phil Mercer across the goal line for the winning touchdown.

Ace defender Mike Hill (12) is dumped after an interception in the rugged DePauw battle.

Butler 27 - - St. Joseph's 7

Butler made amends for their only defeat in 1960 by beating St. Joe in a colorful Homecoming game 27 to 7. The Bulldogs showed their power early in the game by marching the opening kickoff back 62 yards for their first touchdown. Butler moved the ball to the St. Joe three, then Larry Shook ran over for the score. A few minutes later Butler scored again on a Long to Freeman pass.

Butler opened the second half with a score the first time they got the ball. Green scored on a seven yard run around end. The final touchdown was set up when halfback Mike Hill ran back a Puma punt to their 30 yard line. From there Green again took the ball into the end zone for a six point tally.

The third and fourth strings saw action for the remainder of the game. The final two points for the Bulldogs were picked up when Danny Gallagher and halfback Mel Jetter tackled the Puma quarterback in the end zone.

Mickey Seal and Gary Green tackle as Danny Gallagher (27), Don Benbow (55), Lee Grimm (61), and Larry Helms (52) pursue in the fast action of the St. Joe game.

Bob Adams and Don Benbow put the vice grip on a Valparaiso fullback.

Larry Shook (20) catches two Valpo men asleep as he intercepts a pass.

Butler 14 - - Indiana State 0

The Bulldogs won their sixth in a row this year and ran their string to 21 consecutive wins over the Sycamores of Indiana State by defeating them 26 to 0.

Bulldog power and Sycamore mistakes made the difference in the game. Two fumbles and a pass interception set up three touchdowns, on which Mercer, Shook, and McGinley each picked up a touchdown. Larry Shook, who was a standout defensively and offensively, intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble. He also found time to be leading ground gainer in the game with 63 yards on eight carries.

Hard tackling in the Indiana State game results in a fumble as Phil Long (25) and Larry Shook (20) pounce on the ball.

Butler 14 - - Valparaiso 2

The game of games was played on a beautiful Saturday afternoon when the two teams tied with the lead in the conference clashed before a crowd of 11,200. The big difference in the game was the strong arm of quarterback Phil Long and the tremendous defensive play of the Butler line. Butler came up with its first score on a pass from Long to Ken Freeman in the first quarter. The second score was on a 35 yard pass from Long to Larry Shook. Danny Gallagher made both extra point attempts. Three times the Crusaders penetrated deep into Bulldog territory, and three times the Butler defenders held. Those men doing an outstanding job up the middle were Lee Grimm, Larry Goens, Don Benbow, Jerry Shultz, Tim Renie, Ken Freeman, and Larry Helms.

Valpo's only score came on a punt which was blocked, where Shook fell on the ball in the end zone and Valpo received a safety instead of a touchdown.

Butler 30 - - Evansville 6

Bulldog defense showed its strength again when it held the Aces to four first downs, 90 yards passing, and a minus nine yards rushing. The Aces' only score came on a spectacular first quarter kick-off runback which fooled everyone on the Butler team.

Bulldog scoring was handled by Larry Shook with two touchdowns, John Brown and Phil Mercer with one, and Frank Krause who made two points on a safety when he nailed an Evansville back in the end zone.

Butler 26 - - Washington University 6

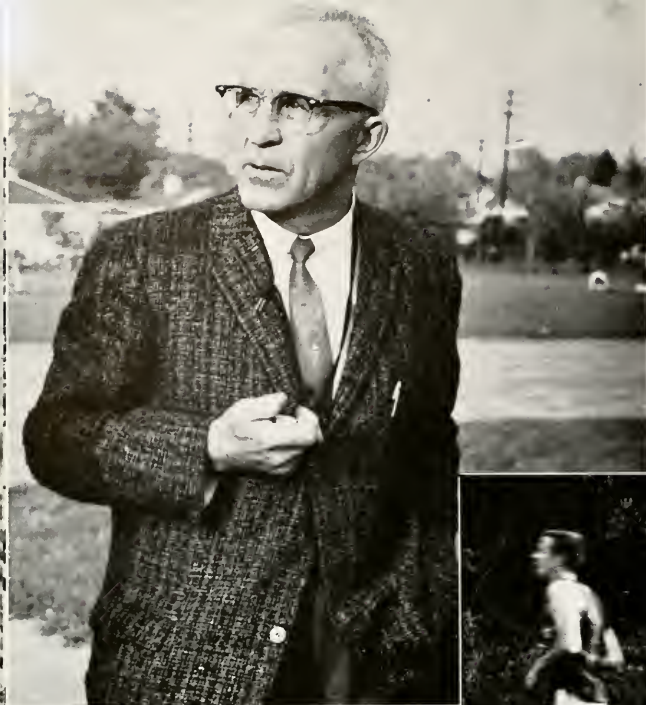

Determined to have another perfect season, the Bulldogs marched to a bruising victory over the visiting Bears of St. Louis. Doing the scoring for the Bulldogs were Gary Green who made two touchdowns, John Brown one, and Phil Mercer who intercepted a Bear pass in the fourth quarter and scored on a long touchdown run. Gallagher picked up the two extra points.

Gary Green (45) picks up a first down against the Bears of Washington of St. Louis.

Harriers Hold Fifth Place In The Conference

The 1961 Cross Country squad completed the year in the conference by finishing in fifth place with 86 points. Butler's runners finished in ninth, tenth, thirteenth, twenty-second, and thirty-second positions. The three seniors, Arnold Graves, Don Hutchison, and Bob Snoddy showed good form but the team again lacked depth.

The freshman team showed much promise as they finished second in the conference meet, beat DePauw, and tied Ball State. George Vincz ran well winning the freshman conference meet.

Tony Hinkle On The Field . . .

The legend of Tony Hinkle dates back to Logansport, Indiana where he lived the early part of his life under the nickname of "Little Paul." Mr. Hinkle enrolled at the University of Chicago and obtained the name, "Tony" while on a road trip basketball game. It seems a waiter talked Hinkle into ordering a plate of spaghetti while he was still green about training rules. The coach caught him and irately criticized Hinkle. Someone jibed the name "Tony," and this name has lived with him ever since.

In 1920 Hinkle led the University of Chicago to the Western Conference Championship, and by graduation he was one of two men to earn nine letters at the University of Chicago. He came to Butler in 1921 and is one of few three sport coaches. Mr. Hinkle was voted to the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955. He has been a past president of the National Collegiate Football Coaches Association. Coach Hinkle has made a name for himself and for Butler.

The Bulldogs opened on the road at Champaign against a Big Ten contender, Illinois. Butler stayed with the taller Illini until the latter stages of the first half. Bill Burwell, the Illinois six foot eight inch center proved to be too much and the Bulldogs tasted their first defeat 82-72.

No one really knew what to expect from last year's winner of the Borderline Conference. At the half it was 38-38. During the second half Butler blew the Aggies off the floor. The Aggies could muster only 18 points during the second half, and Butler won 78-56.

The Michigan Wolverines invaded the fieldhouse with a terrific zone defense that was only solved by the outside shooting of Tom Bowman and Jerry Williams. The Bulldogs won 69-61, and after three games Bowman and Williams were the leading scorers with newcomer Jeff Blue leading the team in rebounding.

The Bulldogs traveled to Peoria for their second road game and pulled an upset, beating the Braves 80-77. Williams scored thirty points and Bowman 25 points. Chet Walker, Bradley's All-American player, scored 28 points. The Bulldogs hit 31 of 57 baskets for the game, 17 of 23 during the second half.

Captain Dick Haslam shoots from the corner as Williams (10) and John Weber (32) get set for the rebound.

In one of the poorest played games of the season the Boilermakers downed Butler 65-57. The Bulldogs could never get their system working because of Purdue's tight man-to-man defense. Purdue's McGinley held Tom Bowman to only ten points while Gerry Williams was the high scorer with sixteen points.

Butler caught DePauw on a hot night in Greencastle as the Tigers smashed the Bulldogs 85-69. DePauw connected on 20 of 27 fielders the first half putting the Bulldogs twenty points behind at halftime. Dale Anderson of DePauw scored 33 points as high man for the evening. About the only sparkling light for Butler was Jack Krebs who came off the bench to score eleven points as the Bulldogs went to their second straight defeat.

The Bulldogs of Butler University held a slim 37-35 halftime lead and kept themselves in contention until three minutes before the game's end. Michigan State tied the score, forged into the lead, and won the game on free throws when Butler fouled several times trying to retrieve the ball.

The Bulldogs had trouble early in the game solving the zone defense of the Illinois Wesleyan Titans. Williams and Bowman began to hit, and Butler edged ahead by two points. With two minutes of play left Butler was ahead 64-63 when Jeff Blue broke the game open with five easy points.

Butler hit 26 of 62 and out-rebounded Toledo 48 to 44 to take their second straight win. A total of 51 fouls was called, and the Toledo coach was charged with a technical foul for calling a referee blind.

Numerous mistakes plus poor freethrow shooting almost cost the Bulldogs a victory over Princeton. Butler sank only one of eight freethrows in the first half, accounting for a close score. The second half was a see-saw battle that saw the lead exchange hands several times with Butler emerging victorious over the Princeton ball club.

Evansville suffered its second conference loss in an easy game for Butler. Evansville, ranked high in small college ratings, could not penetrate the pressing defense of Williams and Haslam and the rebounding of Blue.

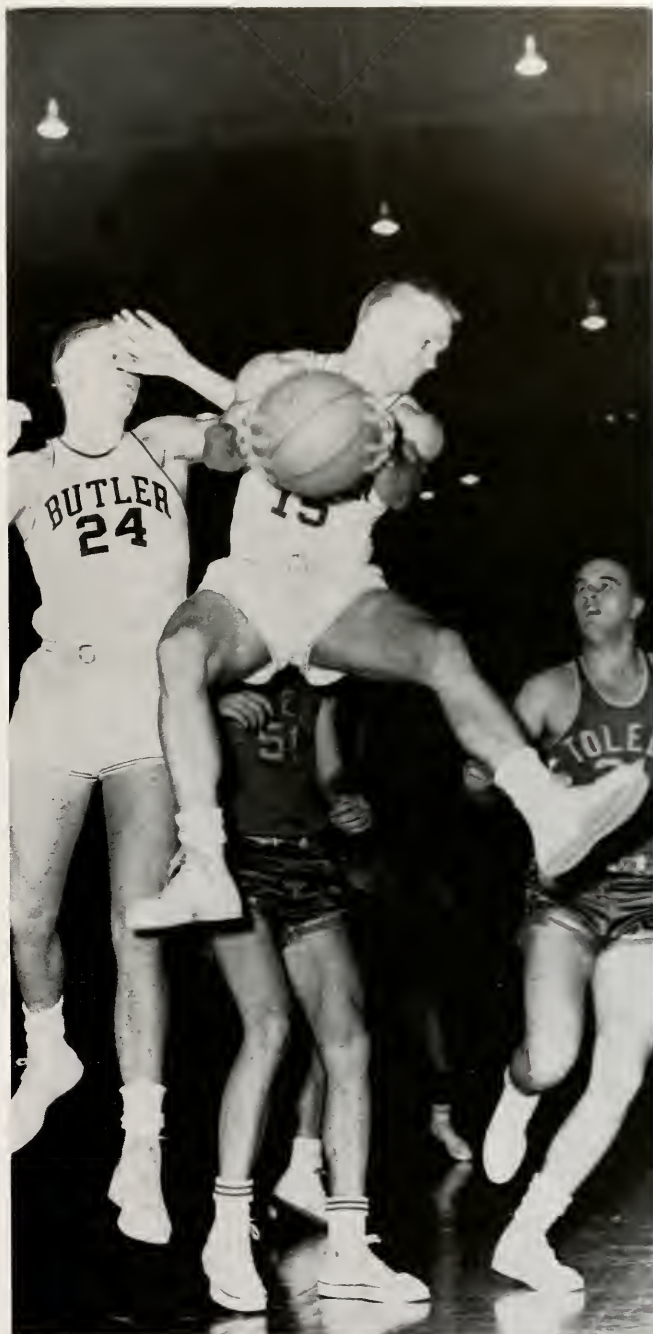

An Evansville man tries to hold Jeff Blue from driving around him as the Bulldogs humiliate the Aces at the fieldhouse.

Hitting 31 of 65 shots, the Bulldogs could not be stopped by a big but slow moving Notre Dame team. Notre Dame hit only 26 of 103 shots. High scorers for Butler were Williams and Blue, both with 26 points.

Coach Tony Hinkle cleared his bench at Wabash as his "ponies" and "shooters" rendered the Wabash defense ineffective. The outside shooting of Bowman kept the defense loose allowing several easy baskets from underneath.

The Sycamores of Indiana State invaded the fieldhouse desperately needing a victory to stay at the top of the conference. Both teams were shooting hot throughout the game, but the Bulldogs finally pulled out ahead in the closing minutes of the game. Butler won its seventh consecutive game in a definite team victory.

Butler gained headway when the Bulldogs traveled to St. Joseph's for another conference win. Williams and Bowman both excelled in the game and led Butler to an important victory.

In a return battle at the fieldhouse St. Joseph's was completely outclassed by the Bulldogs. Butler pushed its winning streak to nine straight victories.

In the Valparaiso-Butler game Butler humiliated Valpo and scored another team victory. Butler was determined to remain at the top of the conference, Valpo stayed in the game the first half with long jump shots and fine ball-handling. But pressing defense by Butler during the second half crushed their offensive attack.

In perhaps its greatest victory of the season Butler came from 16 points behind in the second half to nip Ball State. The Cardinals were ahead 34 to 20 at the half as the Bulldogs could garner only nine of 43 shots. The second half was all Butler's as they came roaring back to take a 46 to 43 lead with ten minutes to go. Butler kept a well-cushioned lead the rest of the game. This win put the Bulldogs at the top of the conference with a 6-1 record and an eleven game winning streak.

The Bulldogs traveled to Crawfordsville for their twelfth straight victory and trampled the Little Giants 90-67. The game was close only at first when Coach Hinkle cleared the bench early in the second half. Butler hit 44 per cent and committed only eleven errors.

Connecting on thirty of thirty-seven free throws the Bulldogs retained first place in the conference with a 7-1 record. Teamwork again solved the Ace's defense as Ken Freeman scored fourteen valuable points, Williams, 25, and Bowman, 16. This victory was extremely enjoyable since the game was played at Evansville. The final score was 92-87.

A Ball State player's reach proves not high enough as Ken Freeman handles the ball in a jump.

Gerry Williams has the ball up again toward the basket in the game with Purdue in which Williams was high scorer with sixteen points.

Freethrows again won for Butler as the team sank 20 of 27 over Notre Dame's 11 of 14. Bowman and Blue pushed Butler to a 61-44 lead early in the second half. Butler won its seventeenth game before a crowd of 7,427 fans with an 86-77 score.

The Bulldogs gained at least a tie for the conference crown by slipping past Indiana State 63-61. The Sycamores dominated the game until the last minute. Jeff Blue scored four quick points and further humiliated the Terre Haute crowd by stealing the ball, outrunning both teams, and scoring with two seconds of play remaining. Everyone was convinced Butler deserved the conference title.

Gerry Williams is up in the air and eyeing the basket.

Dick Haslam looks for an opening as four Cardinals and Ken Freeman anticipate his move.

Again the Bulldogs won the game with freethrows. With 57 seconds left Butler was ahead by one point, 73-72. DePauw missed a crucial basket, and Butler scored seven freethrows, making the final number 80-72, to clinch their second consecutive Indiana Collegiate Conference crown with a 9-2 record.

Adding icing to the cake the Bulldogs traveled to Ball State for their twentieth win. Butler shot a .559 average and Ball State a .547 average in a well-played game. Butler lost a five-point lead in the closing minutes to account for the close score of 87-86. Tom Bowman led both teams with 29 points. After this win Butler accepted an invitation to compete in the NCAA tournament.

NCAA Tourney Special

Taking part in its first NCAA Tournament, Butler traveled to the fieldhouse at the University of Kentucky at Lexington for its first game against Bowling Green. Over 1,000 students and alumni cheered the Bulldogs on, and they were not disappointed.

The press thought the Bulldogs had no chance against Bowling Green, the eighth ranked team in the nation. Its team revolved around a 6'10" center, Nate Thurmond, the seventh leading rebounder in the nation. But someone forgot to tell the Bulldogs they were supposed to lose.

Butler forced Bowling Green to play its game, limiting Thurmond. Bowling Green threw a tight zone defense to contain Jeff Blue, but Williams and Bowman furnished enough outside shooting for the one point victory.

The Bulldogs at one time held a nine point lead. With 18 seconds remaining Butler led, 56-55. The last seconds were the most exciting of the season. Butler threw away the ball, then held Bowling Green for 16 seconds without a shot.

Butler earned the right to journey to Iowa City for the Mid-East Regionals. Kentucky, the third ranked team, was Butler's first opponent, and proved to be too much for the smaller Bulldogs. Kentucky pulled away at the half from a score of 37-36 to win, 80-61.

The Bulldogs played Western Kentucky in the consolation game. In typical fashion they pulled out an 87-86 overtime victory. Butler in its first NCAA attempt made a good showing against taller opponents. The team finished the season with 22 wins and 6 losses, the best basketball record in the history of Butler University.

Butler spirit was high as the time ran out.

Break Conference Record

Coach Galvin Walker's track team finished a fine season by winning the conference crown with 78 points. In the conference meet, Terry Trexler set a new pole vault record of 13'4 $\frac{3}{4}$ ", and the half-mile relay team set a new ICC record at 1:29.5. Other records included Roy Watson's discus record. Jack Krebs established a new hop, skip, and jump mark. The team scored eight points in the nationwide Ohio State Relays and finished second in the Little State and fifth in the Big State. Altogether, the track team won several dual meets, established four new records, and made an outstanding appearance in the state meets.

Cheering Squad Leads Fans To NCAA

Carolyn Boots, Trudy Mennen, Trudy Slaby, and Donn Richardson stare in amazement at the action on the fieldhouse floor.

The cheerleading squad traveled to nearly every away football game this year to back the team and lead Bulldog supporters. The cheerleaders organized, in cooperation with the Student Council, a freshman card section for added school spirit at halftimes. The section was outfitted with blue and white flash cards and coached by the cheerleaders.

They followed the team during the basketball season to Ball State where the team cinched the Indiana Collegiate Conference Championship. The cheerleaders played an active part in the football and basketball pep sessions.

Carolyn Boots and Donn Richardson were co-captains of the squad. Trudy Slaby served her second year as a cheerleader. Freshman additions to the squad were Trudy Mennen, Babs Vaughn, Diane Gable, and Carol Medusky. Alternates during the year were Jeannine Neuen, freshman, and Bonnie Cassady, junior.

The members of the marching units spend many hours during the fall months practicing for their appearances at football games. They present halftime shows at the games including formations and twirling spectacles, and always outshine visiting college bands. This year the band and halftime honeys traveled to DePauw and Evansville for shows at the away games. They participated in the annual Indianapolis Christmas Parade.

During the basketball season the color guard is completely in charge of halftime shows except music provided by the band. The captain of color guard for this year was Ellen Sielaff. The choreographer was Karen Hayes. The halftime shows helped to draw record crowds at the basketball games. The color guard presented many colorful and unusual shows during the season. The members of color guard, for their spring project, sponsor a baton contest entered by high school baton twirlers throughout the state.

The color guard marches on the field for a post-game show after another Butler victory.

Roving Greeks combine talents to practice for basketball competition.

Only the net divided opponents in the volleyball intramurals.

Men's Intramurals

The men's intramural program is sponsored each year by the men's athletic department. The intramurals are under the direction of Henry E. Johnson, assistant athletic director. Competition was encouraged this year among the men's organizations on campus. Tau Kappa Epsilon walked off with the football championship for the third consecutive year. Sigma Chi was the winner of basketball intramurals. Seven sports were included in the scoring for the all-sports trophy. Spring sports included volleyball, swimming, table tennis, track, and softball.

Volleyball was played on the auxiliary floor during the weeks just prior to spring weather.

BOBBI MULVANEY was the winner of tennis singles.

Women's Intramurals

The intramural program for women is organized by the Sports Council of the Women's Recreation Association. Intramural sports are directed by Mrs. Constance Zimlich, Miss Barbara Drinkwater, and Miss Xandra Hamilton, the women's physical education faculty.

The Women's Recreation Association offered a wide variety of sports this year. The fall sports were kickball, tennis, golf, bowling, and table tennis. The winter sports played inside the fieldhouse were volleyball, basketball, swimming, and badminton. Spring sports included softball, archery, and track and field events.

JEANNE LOVERING moves out for another lap in the swimming IMs. WRH placed first, and Alpha Chi Omega held second place.

CHAMPION of table tennis singles was Barbara Rice.

FINISHING ON TOP in the tennis doubles competition were Bobbi Mulvaney and Judy Horst.

BOWLING CHAMPS representing the Women's Residence Hall are Melinda Hinkle, Kay Collings, Cynthia Miller, and Karmen Boling.

The Women's Residence Hall was the winner of bowling, table tennis, volleyball, and swimming competition. The Kappas were kickball winners. The golf title was claimed by Delta Gamma. Alpha Chi Omega won tennis singles and doubles.

The climax of the women's intramural program is the WRA banquet held each spring. An all-sports trophy is awarded to the organization whose members earned the most points for first, second, and third places in events.

TABLE TENNIS DOUBLES WINNERS WERE Cynthia Miller and Barbara Rice.

JO CARTER tries for a basket and misses in intramural competition between the Kappas and the Tri Delt.

WINNING THE GOLF Intramural competition was Mari Munson.

Women's Varsity Basketball Team

Teammates Rita Kay Moody and Marcia LeBoeuf hold the ball as Jane Trotter and Judy Fisher look on during varsity basketball practice.

The Women's Varsity Basketball Team stacked up a season of seven wins and only one loss. The only team to defeat the Butler team was Indiana State with a score of 62-58. The team practiced each week under the direction of Miss Barbara Drinkwater and Miss Xandra Hamilton of the women's physical education faculty.

The teams defeated by Butler and the game scores were Indiana University Nurses, 76-44, Indiana Central, 51-25, St. Vincent's Hospital Nurses, 42-31, Fort Harrison WACS, 63-15, Methodist Hospital Nurses, 42-37, Anderson College, 40-39, and Marian College, 51-47.

The Butler Varsity Team plays according to women's basketball rules. The women have six players, three forwards and three guards. Unlike men's basketball, the guards are strictly defensive. The forwards are strictly offensive, accounting for the high scoring of three players as opposed to five. The women's basketball court is divided into halves with the forwards at one end and the guards at the other. No forward or guard is allowed to cross the midcourt line.

The forwards were Kathy Andry, Ellen Hamner, Judy Horst, Marsha LeBoeuf, Joan Rasmussen, Barbara Rice, and Charlotte Tomlinson.

The guards were Sandy Cheney, Sue Eagleson, Judy Fisher, Dee Dee Hertz, Rita Kay Moody, Jeannine Neuen, and Pam Ulery.

Mortar Board

The homecoming activities, with the aid of Blue Key and the Alumni Office, were supported by Mortar Board, as was the spring weekend including the Keyboard Kottillion. Scholarship Day for high school students was also sponsored by Mortar Board and a course evaluation study, several clarity projects, and a farewell party for Mrs. Ross.

Mortar Board strives to promote scholarship by emphasizing those activities coordinated with academic endeavor and also by giving several $100 scholarships each year to worthy girls. Leadership is promoted by the activities of the girls in other organizations and service by the projects sponsored by the group. Mortar Board strives to uphold these principles by close affiliation with the National Organization both before and after graduation and by the careful selection of new Mortar Board members each year.

Spurs

SPURS OFFICERS organizing the Path of Pennies are: Jonni Jahn, historian, Judy Henthorn, vice-president, Donna Bush, president, Ginny Mitchell, treasurer, Joanne Hines, editor, and Susan Barnhart, secretary.

Spurs, the sophomore women's honorary, is active in campus affairs. Its members, who are selected on the basis of scholarship and participation in school activities, work to promote school spirit and a feeling of loyalty and helpfulness within the student body.

This year the members, wearing the traditional white skirts and sweaters, sold mums at the Homecoming game, worked on the Path-of-Pennies, and chose five of its members to serve on a "Glamour Panel" for the Explorer Scouts. During the spring semester the chapter served the community through volunteer work at some of the hospitals and settlement schools in Indianapolis. Judy Henthorn represented the chapter at the regional convention held in Laramie, Wyoming. Miss Hamilton was the chapter's adviser.

Chimes is a national honorary for junior women. Members are chosen for outstanding participation in campus activities and for a minimum scholastic average of 2.75.

Chimes members sold taffy apples at football games and participated in Homecoming activities by sponsoring the pep session, carillon bell ringing, and the tug-of-war. They served at the Football Banquet and clothed a child at Christmas. Chimes members were in charge of displays in the showcase outside the library.

Miss Ruth Ann Clark was the faculty sponsor and the officers were Joan Glasson, president, Marilyn Quillen, vice-president, Trena Radcliff, secretary, and Ann Temple, treasurer.

Chimes officers for the year were, seated around the table, Susie Abbott, editor; Anne Temple, treasurer; Joann Glasson, president; Marilyn Quillen, vice-president; and Trena Radcliffe, secretary.

Sphinx

Sphinx is an honorary organization of junior men who have maintained a 2.5 or above accumulative grade point average and have demonstrated an interest in extracurricular activities. The primary function of the organization is service to the University, and in striving for this goal, Sphinx annually sponsors a football banquet. In addition the organization participated in the Student Council Activities Fair and organized the Homecoming pep rally and greased pole fight.

The officers were Bob Worth, president, Joe Afanador, vice-president, Don Hazelrigg, treasurer, and Dave Kimbrall, secretary.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national scholastic honorary for freshman women who attain a 3.5 average. The purpose of the organization is to promote intelligent living and to encourage superior scholastic attainment among freshmen women.

In the fall in co-operation with Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta sponsored a reception for promising freshman students. Other activities of the group included participation in the Student Council Activities Fair and the awarding of a book of poetry to the senior member who had the highest academic average based on seven semesters.

SECOND ROW: J. Hadfield, G. Dettwiler, S. Huffman, P. Ulery, C. Newton, D. Bush.

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma is a freshman honor society founded in 1923 to encourage and reward high scholastic attainment among the men of the freshman class. Eligibility for membership is based solely on scholarship. All freshman men who earn a 3.5 average the first semester at Butler are elected.

The officers were Dave Foreman, president, and Ben Satterfield, treasurer. Dr. Roland Usher served as faculty advisor.

FIRST ROW: B. Newberry, D. Benson, D. Foreman. SECOND ROW:

Karyn Genth, Assistant Editor, and Susie Walker, Editor of the 1962 Drift.

The 1962 Drift

The Drift is a publication of the junior class at Butler. A student of any class can participate in compiling the year's events and activities in book form. Work on the Drift is one of the most time consuming and rewarding activities on campus. The yearbook is a source of memories for students and is shown in high schools throughout the state by the admissions office.

This year began with two days of sales during the first semester registration period. After promoting sales during second semester registration the staff sold 1,025 copies, a record number in the history of the Drift.

Working on a budget of $8,500 the staff financed the book by advertising, sales, and paid section pages. Part of the budget this year went toward one four-color spread at the beginning of the book. The decision to insert color photography was made by the staff in an effort to provide variety in layout presentation and to set the pace for future issues of the Drift.

The University offers grants of tuition to those students holding the positions of editor, assistant editor, business manager, art editor, and photographer. The staff fortunately was comprised of members with a sense of responsibility and cooperation. Students of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes participated as section editors, and freshmen served on the index and business staffs.

Collegian

Butler's student newspaper, The Butler Collegian, is a semiweekly publication produced by the journalism department. The newspaper office serves as a laboratory for journalism majors and other interested students. The staff sponsors the Goodwill Cheer Drive.

Although not many letters to the editor appeared in the columns of The Collegian this year, there was an added feature of national and international news briefs. First semester positions were filled by Linda Brandt, editor-in-chief, Karen Hausman, managing editor, Ray Macki, city editor, Dick Cohron, feature editor, Fran Farnam and Pris Thomas, social editors, Rodney Caldwell, business manager, and Mike Peary, sports editor.

Changes made the second semester were Ray Macki, managing editor, Karen Hausman, news editor, Keith Sharkey, feature editor, Linda Wesseling, city editor, and Phyllis Gorfain, editorial director. Mr. John Barron replaced Mr. Alan Marshall as faculty advisor.

Student National Education Association

SNEA held its annual Christmas party for underprivileged children at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

The Student National Education Association is an organization for students interested in teaching as a profession. Programs for the monthly meetings included a Christmas party for under-privileged children and speeches by prominent educators such as the State Coordinator of the Indiana Student Education Association and Dr. J. Hartt Walsh. Other programs included films and a panel discussion on teaching problems.

Helen Webb served as president and Jean Alspach as vice-president, Jody Mustard, secretary, and Georgeann Treida, treasurer.

Association Of Women Students

The governing body of the women students of Butler University is the Association of Women Students. "Coed Codes," a pamphlet of campus regulations, is printed by AWS and is given to all freshman women to serve as a guide of campus policies.

The Association of Women Students had its meetings once a month. In September there was a get-acquainted meeting with skits by the sorority pledge classes. The members of AWS selected Jane Flaningan to represent Butler in the Miss Indiana Pageant.

This year's officers were Helen Webb, president, Sue Elster, vice-president, Linda Brandt, secretary, and Jean Alspach, treasurer. The sponsor was Miss Ruth Ann Clark.

The mass meetings of the Association of Women Students held at intervals during the year are attended by girls living in town and girls from every housing unit on campus.

Tom Crawford, president.

The Butler Student Council widened its range of services to the student body this year. The Gavel, an assignment and date book, was sold by the Council in the fall. The Student Council sponsored the third Activities Fair.

During March the Council cooperated with the Red Cross in the campus Blood Drive. The Student Council led a "Great Decisions" discussion group on world problems. In cooperation with the faculty, the Student Council organized the second College Bowl team, which this year competed with teams from other schools.

The Council furnished the office of their new meeting room and conducted a student opinion poll. The reviewing and filing of the constitutions of all campus organizations was also initiated in an effort to coordinate activities on campus.

Panhellenic

Junior Panhellenic

The Junior Panhellenic Council is made up of delegates from each sorority pledge class. This year, under the leadership of the president, Marsha Bishop, the group sponsored a caroling party for sorority pledges and Women's Residence Hall freshmen.

In addition to their main project, Junior Panhellenic Day, which gives incoming freshman girls an opportunity to tour the sorority houses and ask questions concerning Greek life, the council aided the Indianapolis Panhellenic by providing entertainment at a tea for prospective freshman women in this area.

FIRST ROW: S. Crisman, K. Yost, M. Bishop, and G. Ferrell. SECOND ROW: A. Shelton, S. Bache, D. Emmons, J. Jackson, C. McCoy, T. Mennen, and T. Slaby.

Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Association is governed by the Panhellenic Council consisting of three delegates from each of the six Greek sororities on campus. Weekly meetings are held.

The primary goal of Panhellenic is to foster good relations among Butler women students. The Council also determines the rules for rush in the fall, and sets up all plans for it. Greek Week is sponsored by Panhellenic in conjunction with the Interfraternity Council.

This year's officers were Marilyn Sager, president, Sharon Lynam, vice-president, and Becky Brown, secretary-treasurer.

FIRST ROW: C. Koelling, L. Life, B. Brown, M. Sager, S. Lynam, J. Kriegbaum, and J. Brunst. SECOND ROW: T. Ax, S. Hartigan, K. Hayes, J. Johnson, J. Horst, C. Dixon, M. LeBoeuf, M. Sirmin, J. Eyden, and B. Shook.

Interfraternity Council

IFC Members, Stu Brown and Danny Gallagher put Dr. Paul Stewart up for sale at the Faculty Auction during Greek Week.

The Interfraternity Council is composed of one officer from each fraternity at Butler. The council's purpose is to unite the fraternities in working together for the good of fraternity life. Stu Brown served as president for this year. The Council sent next year's president John McGuire and Dean Schwomeyer, the Council's adviser, to Boston for the National Interfraternity Council Convention last December. The Interfraternity Council works with Panhellenic to promote Greek Week, sells green beanies, and is striving for a suitable organized rush program.

Young Republicans

The Young Republicans under the leadership of Jim Blythe again had a prosperous year. Membership this year reached over 500 and for the second straight year Butler had the largest Young Republican club in the state. The club was host for the Midwest Federation of Young Republican Clubs Convention and sponsored some fifteen major speakers on campus including Donald Bruce, Stan Evans, Bob Hughes, and Homer Capehart.

The club has been considered one of the top ten Young Republican clubs in the Midwest. Officers were Jim Blythe, president, Barbara Shook, vice-president, Karen Hausman, recording secretary, Judy McConnell, corresponding secretary, and Cindy Hopping, treasurer.

FIRST ROW: J. Cornell, K. Hausman, J. Blythe, B. Shook, N. Lapanen, and N. Hunner. SECOND ROW: M. Dadd, N. Ginther, G. Staley, J. Dietz, J. Campbell, and E. Davis. THIRD ROW: J. Neuen, C. Adams, V. Manuscripts

"Manuscripts" is the magazine published twice a year by students enrolled in writing courses at Butler. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for students to publish essays, short stories, and poems approved by the editors and their staff. The editor for 1961-62 was Arvin Brokaw, and the assistant editor was Suzette Brace. The faculty advisers were Dr. Werner Beyer and Dr. Roy Marz.

Kappa Psi, a national pharmaceutical fraternity, strives to broaden the pharmacy student's knowledge of his chosen profession. Kappa Psi offers a scholarship award each year. Kappa Psi sponsors projects and social functions throughout the school year to provide an opportunity for fellowship and association of students with practicing pharmacists.

The officers were Charles Rhodes, president; Dick Simmons, vice-president; Bob Federspill, secretary; Fred Feister, treasurer; Jarold Hunt, historian, and Joe Janostak, chaplain.

Phi Delta Chi

Alpha Phi chapter of Phi Delta Chi, a national pharmacy fraternity, is now in its sixth year at Butler. The purpose of this organization is to promote the scholarship of its members while advancing the profession of pharmacy by providing an opportunity for association between students and practicing pharmacists. Activities include window displays, decoration of the annual Christmas tree, providing scientific pictures for the building's walls, and the selling of pharmaceutical jewelry.

ROTC

The mission of the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps is to develop in selected college students those qualities of leadership and other attributes essential to their progressive advancement to positions of increasing responsibility as commissioned officers in the United State Air Force.

The Department of Air Science is an integral part of Butler University. Its aim is to produce quality Air Force officers through a program of study co-ordinated with other curricula of the university. Air Force ROTC is the primary source for Air Force Second Lieutenants. Cadets who complete both basic and advanced Air Science Courses and who receive a baccalaureate degree become eligible for commissioning and subsequent active duty in the United States Air Force.

The Debate Squad participated in nineteen debate tournaments, three oratorical contests, several exhibition debates, and a discussion contest during the 1961-62 season. Eleven debaters competed in approximately 180 rounds of debate and defended their championship in the four-man division of the National Tau Kappa Alpha Conference.

Debating the proposition "Resolved, the labor organizations should be under the jurisdiction of anti-trust legislation," the squad won first place in three tournaments, a top award at the discussion conference, and several individual debater's awards by the middle of February, in addition to placing second in the men's division of the State Oratorical Contest. The Butler chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, national speech honorary, sponsored their annual Novice Debate Tournament and the Friendly Five Debate Tournament.

University

Dr. and Mrs. Maurice O. Ross

Dr. M. O. Ross, Our President

A background of teaching and administrative experience is combined with the liberal interests of an avid reader, sports fan, and record collector in our retiring president, Dr. Maurice O. Ross.

During twenty years our seventeenth president has seen the University expand in size and financial abilities. Only this year he remarked that continued growth is inevitable.

The addition of two residence halls, the John Whistler Atherton Center, the Pharmacy building, the J. I. Holcomb Observatory and Botanical Gardens, and the beginnings of the Clowes Memorial Auditorium, the Jordan College of Music building, and a library have all been realized during his administration.

Guiding Butler University since 1942 President Ross has placed emphasis on the recruitment of a highly academic faculty, a soundness of financial basis, and a raising of admissions standards.

President Ross came to Butler in 1938, and for four years he was the first Dean of the College of Business. On February 23, 1942 he assumed the office of the President of Butler University.

Loyal among Bulldog supporters, the Rosses braved the cold weather to attend home football games.

Dr. Ross appeared at the annual Christmas convocations to offer his message of welcome.

President and Mrs. Ross have enjoyed through the years attending open houses on campus.

President Ross has looked at the Butler campus with pride in view of the vast changes during his administration.

SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

Serving Since 1942

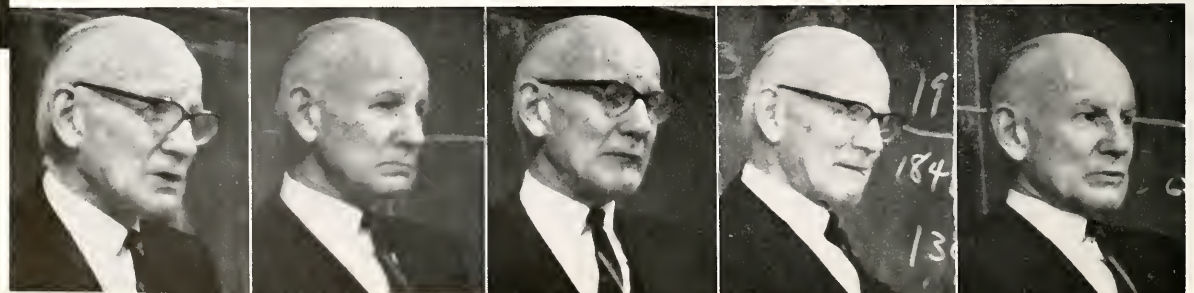

His hometown of Hillsboro was not far from Kentucky Wesleyan College where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. During President Ross' undergraduate years he won the state oratorical contest and was named on the all-state track and football teams. The University of Chicago conferred his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees.

President Ross was for seven years a professor of economics at Earlham College and Dean of Earlham College for six years. It was at Earlham that he met Mrs. Ross.

When Dr. Ross joined with Butler little did he realize that he was to serve as President of the University longer than any previous president. He has continued as a professor in the Business College throughout his presidency.

He has served on the Board of Trustees of Butler University. He has been a member of the American Association of College Presidents and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

We extend our gratitude indeed to a distinguished gentleman whose ideals have become integrated into Butler's expansion.

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees of Butler University is comprised of twenty-four members, nearly all of them Indianapolis residents. James Irving Holcomb is the President and Evan B. Walker, the Vice-President. The Board of Trustees is the governing body of the University. The Board sets University policy through its eight acting committees. The committees are the Executive, Gifts and Bequests, Educational Policy, Finance, Buildings and Grounds, Nominations and Honorary Degrees, Budget, and Butler Council. Miss Kathryn Bromley, Secretary of the Board of Trustees, performs the clerical work for the group. Mr. George Diener, as Vice-President and Treasurer of Butler University, is an ex officio member of the Board of Trustees.

WOMEN'S Physical Education is taught by Miss Barbara Drinkwater, Miss Xandra Hamilton, and Mrs. Constance Zimlich.

College Of Education

The College of Education offers an enriched course of study in order to give students the best possible preparation for teaching careers. Incorporated in the program are broad general education requirements, intensive preparations in the subject areas to be taught, and study in selected professional courses designed to acquaint the students with the nature of teaching. In addition to the program offered on campus, students may elect special professional courses at the John Herron Art Institute and the Jordan College of Music. The student teaching program, a valuable experience in practical application open to senior education students, is taught through a co-operative program with the excellent facilities of the local public schools.

THE FACULTY of the Educational Psychology, Guidance, and Special Education Department meet to discuss the departmental program. Professors include Dr. Roger Coulson, Dr. David Torbet, Dr. Joseph Nygaard, and Dr. William Howard.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION department members are Mr. James Rooker, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, and Dr. Paul Koester.

THE PROFESSORS of courses related to Secondary Education are Dr. Duane Lang, Dr. John Best, Dr. William Davenport, and Dr. James Thomas.

The Collegian serves as a laboratory for journalism students where practical experience is gained in newspaper work. The funds for the Collegian are provided by the College of Business.

College Of Business

The College of Business Administration endeavors to give the students a practical, fundamental knowledge of business by requiring the completion of high standards during a four-year program. The required courses in the fields of general education and business administration produce well-educated persons. Students may elect one of eight areas of concentration to obtain specialized professional training. Four tools of knowledge are incorporated into the business education. These tools are the understanding of quantitative data, the principles of administration, the knowledge of the inter-relationships of major functional areas of business, and the concepts of the inter-relationships between business and the outside world.

College Of Pharmacy

THE LECTURERS of Pharmacognosy and Pharmacology are Dr. Albert Swartz, Dr. William Lucas, and Dr. Donald Meyers.

THE PHARAMCEUTICAL DEPARTMENT includes Dr. Nathan Michener, Dr. Arthur A. Harwood, and Dr. John W. Martin.

The strong academic and professional foundation of the College of Pharmacy has been demonstrated by the outstanding program which is designed to educate students in the scientific and practical aspects of pharmacy as well as to give them a broad liberal arts training. Extensive background is given to students concerning preparation, handling, and analysis of drugs and chemicals. This year there are about 125 students enrolled in the college. The high standards maintained by the College of Pharmacy have been rewarded by high accreditation from the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education.

Jordan College Of Music

The Jordan College of Music, a member of the National Association of Schools of Music, offers an extensive four-year program in addition to the university academic requirements for graduation. Degrees are granted in the fields of dance, music, radio, and drama. Students have many opportunities outside class to gain professional training by performing in the productions of numerous organizations. Through an outstanding program which has been offered for over half a century, the Jordan College of Music has become very widely acclaimed. A new building for the Jordan College of Music has become a welcome addition to our campus.

A student, in order to get the most from college life, must look around him. We have looked around us and we have seen Butler, a thriving, moving institution. The campus was always fully in view. The campus itself became a changing scene. We watched the crane, symbol of construction, looming over the library. We looked at the activities at Butler and pondered over the sports events, queen contests, and organizational functions.

So many things were happening at Butler this year—the campus was getting a face-lifting, our President of twenty years was preparing to retire, the Bulldog Basketball Team received a bid to the NCAA for the first time in the history of Butler University.

The most obvious way to restore the sights, we thought, was through better picture coverage. Our efforts were directed toward making the Drift a treasured memory book. We hope that with only a glance at the pictures you might sense the sentiments we had in mind.

Publishing this year's Drift was a great experience. With an ambition to successfully present our interpretation of an outstanding year's activities at Butler our work became the most important thing we could do. We postponed parties, cut classes, and missed out on C-Club time with a definite goal in mind.

With only two pairs of eyes we could not have seen all the people and places at Butler. We want to thank the editors on our staff who helped us to look and interpret our visual images.

Our cover is one of our strongest selling points. We feel it has a definite freshness and eye-appeal, improving upon the cover selections of past Drift staffs. The ruggedness of nature is one of its implications.

Of course our greatest pride lies in the color presentation of the University in the opening. The photograph was taken in early November to capture the richest coloring during the year. Much planning and calculation went toward the finished product appearing on pages two and three. The most properly sensitive film was selected. Arrangements were made to engage a pilot with experience in chaffering aerial photographers. The proper weather and time of day were judged. The angle and range of the picture desired were decided upon. The cameraman was our staff photographer, Robert Edess. He was flown by a pilot from the Sky Harbor Airport at an altitude of one thousand feet above the campus.

The four-color processing used to produce the picture was an operation too costly to gamble with failure. It is presented in an attempt to handle color as never before used by the Drift and to encourage future staffs to take further steps in color photography. We believe that our use of color fits in very well with the theme. We extend our appreciation to the Ropkey Engraving Company for their technical assistance and sincere co-operation.

We began the year with thoughts that this was the obvious year for a theme of "Looking Around Us." With this theme the field of presentation was unlimited. We began to express ourselves pictorially. Now with our thoughts drawing to a close for the year, it is our belief that ten years hence we would have considered the same general theme in following the year's events at Butler.
